

Robert's Real News

By Robert Nemish

January 2008

Best wishes to you for 2008!

The beginning of each year is traditionally the time to do some planning for the upcoming months. Our plan for 2008 reflects our intent to grow our business substantially. Naturally we depend, in great part, on your goodwill, which has consistently permitted us to enjoy almost 100% of our business from our client referrals and business with previously active clients. To further grow this part of our business we have put together an extensive Referral Rewards Program. You will find the details in this newsletter and on our website and we encourage your participation in this fantastic program.

Our plans for 2008 include growth in the size of our team. Jenni, my daughter, is currently functioning as our Client Care Coordinator. Her contribution in this role over the past few months has been extremely significant and measurable. In early February she will move to her new role as Sales Partner, activating her Real Estate license and beginning to provide sales expertise to our clients on the buying side of our business. Suffice it to say, I will be spending a substantial amount of my time in a training and backup role, teaching her how to best serve our buyers' needs. I truly relish this role as it has already been so rewarding to work with someone so willing to learn. Having Jenni in the role of Sales Partner will allow us to expand the level of services and expertise we provide to our buyers. I am confident that over time you will come to recognize the improvements we plan in this area.

As our group grows you will see a change in our business's identification that is more in keeping with the growing scope of our services. As we are still at the early stages of this transformation, we ask you to stay tuned for more news in the coming months.

If your planning involves a real estate purchase or sale in the near future, part of your planning process should involve getting some expert advice on the best way to move forward. We'd love to be a part of your planning process and your choice of a Real Estate expert. After 14 years of successfully helping clients to buy and sell real estate in Victoria, we have the skill, expertise and service orientation to make your real estate transaction a pleasant and profitable one.

Whatever your plans hold for you in 2008, we wish you the very best in achieving your dreams and invite you to involve us wherever we may be of service to you.

Yours truly,

Robert Nemish

JOB POSTING: Client Care Coordinator

Once Jenni is fully transferred to her new role as Sales Partner, we will be hiring a new Client Care Coordinator. As I'm sure you realize, the demands on Realtors to provide a superlative level of service is constantly growing. This position requires a well-trained, detail-disciplined administrative support person — all of which is vital to enable us to provide you with a very high level of service, be it on the sale of your property or helping you to purchase. If you know someone who has functioned well in an administrative support role in a lawyer's office or a more traditional corporate setting, please let us know so that we might attract them to our group.

How many cookies did the kids REALLY leave for Santa?

We all indulge during the holidays: a glass of punch here, a morning eggnog there, big turkey dinners, and never-ending plates of holiday treats. Now it's time for the New Year's Resolutions...when we promise ourselves that we'll eat better, exercise more, fit into those old skinny jeans, and down the belt buckle a notch or two.

If you're among the expansive list of people whose clothes feel a tad more snug, enjoy some bulge-battling tips from our resident personal trainer:

- Exercise — Every little bit counts! Take the stairs 2 at a time, park in a spot a bit farther away from your destination, do situps while watching TV, take the dog for 3 walks instead of two (you'll both win!)
- Feeling hungry? Down a glass of water FIRST. Wait 20 minutes, and if you're still hungry then decide.
- Trick your mind—use smaller plates!
- DO NOT SUPERSIZE! EVER!
- Burn baby burn—Everyone LOVES Richard Simmons!
- Buy some new workout wear...nothing feels better than looking good and keep it in plain view. You'll feel guilty not looking good!
- The foods you daydream about probably aren't good for you. Eat more vegetables.
- Don't buy treats for your spouse; you'll end up eating them too!
- Your friends over-indulged too, even the skinny ones - team up, the accountability will motivate you both!
- A calorie is a calorie. Bad things that taste good are bad. Eat more celery.
- Eat lean = look lean
- Bikini season is not as far away as you think!
